Under federal law 12 U.S.C. Section 1821(d)(5)(C), failure to file a claim on or before the Claims Bar Date will result in the Receiver disallowing the claim. The disallowance is final.

NOTE TO CLASS CLAIMANTS: By law, the Receiver will not accept a claim filed on behalf of a proposed class of individuals or entities or a class of individuals or entities certified by a court. EACH individual or entity must file a separate claim with the Receiver.

TO THE DEPOSITORS OF FIRST REPUBLIC BANK

The FDIC, which insures your deposits in its corporate capacity (the "FDIC"), arranged for the transfer of all deposits ("Deposits") - including the uninsured amounts - at the Failed Institution to another insured depository institution, JPMorgan Chase Bank N.A., Columbus, OH 43240 (the "New Institution"). This arrangement should minimize any inconvenience from the closing of the Failed Institution. You may leave your Deposits in the New Institution, but you must take action to claim ownership of your Deposits.

Federal law, 12 U.S.C. Section 1822(e), requires you to claim ownership of ("claim") your Deposits at the New Institution by taking any of the following actions within eighteen (18) months from the Closing Date, which is November 1, 2024. Official Items issued by the Failed Institution; such as cashier's checks, dividend checks, interest checks, expense checks, and money orders are considered Deposits and must also be claimed within 18 months from the Closing Date. You may claim your deposits at JPMorgan Chase Bank, Columbus, OH by taking any one of the following actions. If you have more than one account, your action in claiming your Deposit in one account will automatically claim your Deposits in all of your accounts.

1. Make a deposit to or withdrawal from your account(s). This includes writing a check on any account, having an automated direct deposit credited to or an automated withdrawal debited from any account or closing the account;
2. Execute a new signature card on your account(s), enter into a new deposit agreement with the New Institution, change the ownership on your account(s), or renegotiate the terms of your certificate of deposit account(s) (if any);
3. Provide the New Institution with a completed change of address form; or
4. Write to the New Institution and notify it that you wish to keep your account(s) active with the New Institution. Please be sure to include the name of the account(s), the account number(s), the signature of an authorized signer on the account(s) and a name and address.

If you do not claim ownership of your Deposits at the New Institution by November 1, 2024, federal law requires the New Institution to return your Deposits to the FDIC, which will be required to deliver them as unclaimed property to the State indicated in your address on the Failed Institution's records. If your address is outside of the United States, the FDIC will be required to deliver the Deposits to the State in which the Failed Institution had its main office. According to the Unclaimed Deposits Amendments Act of 1993 (12 U.S.C. Section 1822(e)), you will have ten years to claim your deposits from the State's Unclaimed Property Division according to the state's unclaimed property laws. If you do not claim your deposits from the State within the ten-year period, federal law prohibits you from claiming your deposits.

If the State does not take custody of your Deposits after the 18-month period, you may claim your Deposits from the FDIC until the receivership of the Failed Institution is terminated. A receivership may be terminated at any time. Once the receivership terminates, you will not be able to claim your Deposits.

If you have a loan with the Failed Institution, and you would like to discuss offsetting your insured and/or uninsured deposit(s) against the loan, you must contact the FDIC immediately.

In the event you disagree with the FDIC's determination of your insurance coverage as represented by the account(s) made available at the New Institution, you may seek a review of the FDIC's determination in the United States District Court for the federal judicial district where the principal place of business of the Failed Institution was located. You must file your request for this review no later than 60 days after the date on which your deposit(s) became available to you at the New Institution. Filing a request for review will not prevent you from using the funds in your new account.
